Wine MUST be shown in clear bottles with no labels showing the type of wine. Stoppers MUST be flanged topped corks. Air spaces not to exceed three quarters of an inch. IF POSSIBLE, a small label giving class number and exhibitor number to be affixed to each bottle to identify it, this should be put between the seams of the bottle, bottom edge of the label 1" above the base of the bottle. Your exhibitor number can be obtained from the Show Secretary's table when your entries are brought in, as it can vary from year to year.
16. Cookery
Please note that all cookery items may be sampled or cut. Any items containing meat, fish or cream MUST be exhibited on an ice tray which is to be provided by the exhibitor (IF NOT THEN YOUR ENTRY WILL BE DISQUALIFIED). ALL BAKED ITEMS MUST be covered by cling film or a clear bag for hygiene purposes.
17. Pot Plants
ALL pot plants MUST be exhibited with a saucer; this is to ease watering and to stop the show cloths from being dirtied. PLEASE NOTE that the maximum pot size is 24 inches, unless particularly specified in the schedule.
18. DISPUTES
If an entrant disagrees with a judge's decision then please see the Show Secretary so that the matter can be resolved. Please remember though, that the judges are impartial & have no prior knowledge of an entrants details i.e. name etc. when deciding who is first or second in a class. The judges are selected from a list of Royal Horticultural Society accredited judges which is supplied to us. They adhere to a set of RHS guidelines when judging but also use their discretion for a small show such as ourselves as we want to encourage entrants not discourage them.
